

Sailin' home across the ocean
 Sailin' home we're going to be free
 Down below the crew's in motion
 To defy the violence of the sea
 Feelin' young, feelin' strong
 At the height of the fight,
 So nothing can go wrong
 We know we always wanna be
 Fighting the sea

Giant waves are rolling higher
 It's gonna be a cold and rainy night
 Hands on deck are raw and tired
 Praying for a sign of distant light
Feelin' young, feelin' strong
And the might of the night is pounding dark and long
 We know we always wanna be
 Fighting the sea

But there's the light, and there's the fire
The harbour's key shines dimly on the shore
 We can see the steeply spire
 Now we know we won the fight once more
Feelin' young, feelin' strong
And to night came out right,
Tommorrow could be wrong
 We know we always wanna be
 Fighting the sea

Koor So young, so strong
So hard and long

Feelin' young, feelin' strong
And tonight came out right,
But tommorrow could be wrong
 We know we always wanna be
 Fighting the sea
